

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Baby Buggy for sale at this office for $4.50. 24-tf

Baby Buggy for sale at this office for $4.50. 24-tf

Miss Ethel Sharp is visiting friends in Gilliam.

50 suit patterns at reduced prices at Krummel's. 26-tf

Krummel takes care of your clothes at $1 per month. 26-tf

Miss Annie Cordell is visiting relatives in Glasgow.

For a nobby suit or stylish pair of pants, see Ed J. Krummel. 26-tf

Score cards for duplicate whist for sale at the REPUBLICAN office.

Miss Allie Dunn left Tuesday for Houston, Mo., to visit relatives.

Gus Mayer and Charley Chapline Sundayed at McAllister Springs.

For thirst quencher, try a glass of Sweet Springs water at Loomis's.

B. H. Downs, wife and daughter, left Saturday for Topeka, Kansas.

Sedalia will hold her street fair during the latter part of September.

New Turkish Bath Tub, $4.00; never used. For sale at this office. 24-tf

Mrs. Marcellus Gauldin returned Monday night from Excelsior Springs.

Loomis' soda water is the best made from pure fruit juices. Try it.

Hair cut in first-class style for 15 cents at Wm. Oser's, at the old Rose stand. 24-1m

Garments made at Krummel's tailor shop are noted for style, beauty and wear. 26-tf

Hair cut in first class style for 15 cents at Wm. Oser's, at the old Rose stand. 24-1m

A new hose pump that is a daisy, with brass cylinder, for $6, at James Irwin's. 26-4w

Good Photographs twenty-five cents a dozen and up. New Gallery, over Fletcher's. 23

Miss Lottie McIntyre of Carrollton, is a guest of Miss Maude Mason, south of the city.

Mrs. Mary Langan the guest of Mrs. W. H. Pate, returned Thursday to her home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Charles Marshall, of Kansas City, is the guest of William Marshall and wife of this city.

Miss Alma Headley, of Kentucky is making her annual visit to Mrs. Mary Price at Hotel Hurt.

Mrs. C. M. Siler and Miss Alma left Saturday for a short sojourn in Kansas City and St. Joseph.

Miss Jessie Sparks returned home Saturday from a visit to Lexington and Higginville friends.

Go to James Irwin and get one of those up-to-date hose reels, which will last a lifetime, for only 25c. 26-4w

Miss Katharyne Deane, the guest of Miss Frances Napton, returned Saturday to her home in Mexico.

The Marshall Concert Band will furnish music for the picnic at Elk Lick Saturday (to-morrow).

Mrs. Georgia Brunaugh returned this week from an extended visit to friends in Chicago and St. Louis.

Mrs. A. G. Lackey and Mrs. Woods of Kansas City, are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. P. Huston on North street.

Mrs. Mary Langan, of St. Louis and Mrs. Wm. Pate spent Wednesday with Mrs. Mary Gaines in the country.

The Marshall base ball team was defeated by a Blackburn nine at that place last Saturday by a score of 23 to 9.

Mrs. C. D. Newton and sister, Mrs. Edmondson, have returned from a visit to Mrs. S. P. Withers at Fairville.

Moberly had three fires, all in one night, last week, which destroyed a considerable amount of valuable property.

Miss Carrie Jordan has returned to her home in St. Louis, after a visit to the family of Calvin Balthis, in this city.

It is a luxury to fan. Why not be fanned and eat ice cream at the same time, at the same price at Loomis' parlor? 24-1m

Bath-room fixtures in all of the latest designs, including something entirely new in closet fixtures, at James Irwin's. 26-4w

Mrs. Martha Boulden, of Kentucky, the guest of Mrs. E. W. Dawes, left Friday for a visit to friends in Kansas City.

Mrs. J. R. Blackburn, of Colorado, the guest of Mrs. Hayden Colvert, left Saturday for a visit to friends in Mayview.

Stephen Potter whose health is usually fine, writes home that he has been much benefitted from his stay at Excelsior.

Dr. Arthur Nelson has returned to Boonville after a visit to his mother, Mrs. Robt Cary, who is visiting in Marshall.

Mrs. B. L. Seawell returned to her home in Warrensburg Monday after a pleasant visit to the family of Rev. Mr. Clemmens.

Mrs. C. P. Williams and Miss Ella Williams, of Koping, changed cars here Monday en route home from a week's visit in St. Louis.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Elizabeth Eddins is still dangerously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robt Reynolds in this city.

Frankie Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Johnston, had the misfortune to fall from a fence on Friday and badly bruise her face.

Mrs. N. B. King, of Jefferson City, who visited Mrs. James Boyer last week, is the guest this week of Mrs. Thomas Boatright on Capitol Hill.

Miss Sallie Miller returned Friday to her home in Pittsburg, Kansas, after an extended visit to relatives and friends in this city and Sweet Springs.

Misses Laura Orear and Maude Cretcher and Messrs Arch Naylor and Warren Colvert spent a pleasant afternoon at Wilton Springs Monday.

Miss Corder, of Waverly, the guest of H. Clay Corder of this city, was the guest several days this week of Mrs. R. E. L. Smith on Arrow street.

For a clean smooth shave by a first class barber, who has spent years at the business, call on Oser at the stand formerly occupied by Rose Bros. 24-1m

The meat market, south of the New York Store, sells for cash, but gives the buyer the advantage of a lower price and the best city meat—no other handled. 22-tf

D. F. Simmons and W. M. Charles both first class barbers have arrived and will be glad to see you at Oser's, at the stand formerly occupied by Rose Bros. 24-1m Misses Bettie Mason and Velora Abney, of Marshall, were in Miami Wednesday. Mr. Leslie Wilhite, of Carrollton, accompanied them home. —Miami News.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE
PRESCRIPTION

MAKES WEAK WOMEN
STRONG
AND
SICK WOMEN
WELL.

Robt. Rea, south of the New York Store, sells the best city meat 24 cents below other shops. It's a case of cash down, but then it's money saved and good meat. 22-tf

Call in and examine those excellent new pumps at James Irwin's. They are decidedly the finest thing of the kind in the way of a force pump ever brought to this market. 26-4w

Clinton Barnhill, of Marshall, was the guest of Miss Annah Taylor Tuesday. He came for his sister, Miss Eva, who has been making Miss Taylor a visit. —Miami News.

Col. Vince Marmaduke and wife are spending a most pleasant summer at the farm in Morgan county. Henry Ames of St. Louis and Jennie Marmaduke are also of the party.

On July 1st, Robt. Rea's meat market, just south of the New York Store, opened on a cash basis, but at the old prices. Nothing but city meat handled, which insures the best. 22-tf

The dog and pony show returned to Marshall Friday. Being unable to arrange for transportation by rail, the show was compelled to return to give the stock a much needed rest.

Marshall's band is acquiring more than a local reputation. Miami people take a good deal of pride in that organization, for we taught Al Parker a whole lot that he didn't know about music. —Miami News.

Dr. John R. Hall whose family are sojourning at Excelsior entertained his brothers Dr. C. Lester Hall of Kansas City, Dr. Thomas Hall of Napton and M. W. Hall at dinner on Saturday.

Misses Mary, Sarah and Ella Robbins Black left Saturday for a visit to Lexington friends. They were accompanied by Dr. W. H. Black who returned Wednesday night by way of Kansas City.

PART OF OUR... BUSINESS.

is to attend to the pleasures of others. And the orders for are entrusted to us, then the enjoyment and satisfaction of the guests and the relief from anxiety of host or hostess will be very much increased. Our work is done with a smoothness which comes through long experience. Our charges are moderate.

CATERING

A. E. LOOMIS.

NORTH SIDE SQUARE.

City meat is far superior to that of local bees, and then Robt. Rea, south of the New York Store, is selling at a lower price. He is running a cash shop and gives the buyer the advantage of this system in a low price. Try him. 22-tf

Dr. C. Lester Hall, of Kansas City, came down Saturday morning and assisted by Dr. John R. Hall and performed an operation on Mrs. Edgar Place for floating kidney. Mrs. Place is, we are glad to say, getting along nicely.

Ed J. Krummel, the tailor, employs only first-class workmen and uses only No. 1 lining. All garments made up in the best and latest styles and to the highest standard of fashion. Give him a trial and be one of the best dressed men of Marshall. 26-tf

Miss Gilkeson entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Fletcher, of Marshall, who is visiting her. The event was a lawn party, and the beautiful lawn of the Gilkeson home was lighted with Japanese lanterns. —Warrensburg Standard-Herald.

H. H. Downing is to be congratulated on the success of Halie Hardin in winning first money in the half-mile 2-year-old heat at the Boone County Fair. In the show ring, another animal owned by him took second money in the competition for best roadsters.

Rev. C. E. Thomas who left last week for his summer vacation spent several days at his old home in Sturgis, Michigan, where he filled the pulpit on Sunday, also conducted funeral services of an old gentleman friend, and had the pleasure of attending a birthday celebration of an old lady who had reached her 94th milestone.

Mr. Thomas, who felt much benefitted from his short stay in Sturgis, left Wednesday for Brooklyn, Michigan, and will go to Baltimore and Virginia points before returning home.